

It was a boring day in that big whitehouse
White wearing nurses looking after us
Amen they said and amen I prayed
Then one day I met this strange looking man
He rang their bell and smelled like hell
Oh boy,good heaven
Is he a man, called frankenstein
He said: I've heard that you wanna play
Yes you're right but they want me to stay
Don't worry son, I got a golden way
They'll be happy to hear you play
Oh boy,good heaven
Is he a man, called frankenstein
Goodbye mad house
No more pills to eat
I wonder how long he'll try
It was a boring day in that big whitehouse
White wearing nurses looking after us
Amen they said and amen I sayed
