

Hey Man

22-Pistepirkko

She said hey man
She said hey man hey man
Don't you ever understand
Why you are alone
Even at your home

Hey man hey man
You always let me know
That I'm no good
That I look so cheapo

Hey man hey man
You never threat me good
Why should you
Well I don't know

Hey man hey man
You always let me know that I'm no good
Hey man hey man you never threat me well
Why should you
Well I don't know

Hey man hey man
You never rang my bell
Well why should you
Well why should you
Where I belong

Not in your arms I know
But I need to be loved
Like everybody else
She said hey man hey man
Don't you never understand
Why you are alone
Even at your home

Hey man hey man
Don't you ever understand
What went wrong
Well you should know

Hey man hey man you always let me know
That I'm no good that i'm no cool
That I'm cheapo
Hey man hey man you never
Let me love you

Just that I'm no good that i'm no cool I'll do the walk.
