Only For Me

2AM Club

I remember when it used to be easy
Used to look cute watching the TV
Used to lay there with wet hair
After the shower picking what to wear
But now you're dressing up for somebody else
Looking through my glass as the ice melts
Looking at the past just won't help
I just don't know how the chips all fell

Maybe cause I didn't follow through
Gave love I didn't follow suit
How you'd say "I'll always follow you"
I remember when it was

Only for me
Only for me
Only for me
Ain't that how it's supposed to be

Only for me
Only for me
Ain't that how it's supposed to be

I remember when it used to be fair
No games just truth or dare
No shame you used to care
You gave the goosebumps I don't want to share
But now you're giving them to somebody else
Watching TV on somebody's couch
Blouse on the floor in somebody's house
I just don't know how it all went south

Maybe cause I got down to much
Too many too down to touch
But with you I never gave enough
I remember when it was

Only for me
Only for me
Only for me
Ain't that how it's supposed to be

Only for me
Only for me
But you know that I'll go on and

Wander till I get somewhere
Wander like I just don't care
I'll wander knowing it's not fair
Wander, look look looking

Wander till I get somewhere
Wander like I just don't care
I'll wander knowing it's not fair
Wander, look look looking

Wander, til I find someone

But it's just not you so I'm just not done
I could make a million calls to new tongues
I could find a million girls, I want one

You could draw a million lines in gold sand
I could walk across and hope to slow dance
A million love letters now turned to dust
And I remember when it was

Only for me
Only for me
Only for me
Ain't that how it's supposed to be

Only for me
Yeheee

Only for me
Only for me
Only for me
Ain't that how it's supposed to be

Only for me
Only for me
But you know that I'll go on and

Wander till I get somewhere
Wander like I just don't care
I'll wander knowing it's not fair
Wander, look look looking

Wander till I get somewhere
Wander like I just don't care
I'll wander knowing it's not fair
Wander, look look looking

Only for me
Only for me
Only for me
Ain't that how it's supposed to be

Only for me
Only for me
Ain't that how it's supposed to be
