

Every time I get near your field of gravity
You look so sad to tell me how could that be?
ah- ah she said things I obsess
I would never confess ah- ah I told her don't dwell

That will leave you in hell

Sometimes things that you're scorned for You should be adored for
But like I told her don't dwell

I know my love that I look dilapidated
But are you glad I made it Can you tell me that much ah-ah Why are you surprised
I don't take my advice

ah-ah she told me don't dwell
That will leave you in hell

Sometimes I need reminding Regret is so blinding
But like I told me don't dwell

Everything is a choice
Go ahead raise your voice
Might as well forgive your self
That means more than someone else
Set you free break the shell
To your demons farewell
(Ooh na na na na) I tell you don't dwell
