

You're so pitiful
Divine underneath your skin
Not too afraid to remain in silence
Watching your will grow thin

Remembering when we cried out
Heaven why won't you shine down
So ready to walk away
I don't wanna hear you say

Go on twist me
Sideways enough to sever
Some day I won't feel this way
Go on twist me
Nothing's made to last forever
Some day I'll be set free

You look so pitiful
When you're hiding behind that grin
Not too afraid to restrain your violence
Holding my head in my hands

Remembering when we cried out
Heaven why won't you shine down
So ready to walk away
Kill with the words you say

Go on twist me
Sideways enough to sever
Some day I won't feel this way
Go on twist me
Nothing's made to last forever
Some day I'll be set free

Bleeding all the time
I never said goodbye
Hurting all the time
I never said goodbye
Lying all the time
I never said goodbye
Dying all the time

Go on twist me
Sideways enough to sever
Some day I won't feel this way
Go on twist me
Nothing's made to last forever
Some day I'll be set free
