

Never Ever After

4 Strings

I find myself
Caught in an unfamiliar light
In your eyes
Slowly truth appears
And I see you know longer shine for me now

And it cuts just like a knife
And it can crush just like a serpent can
Yeah it can cut just like a knife
As the waves come rushing in

As the waves come rushing in

Waves are rushing...

Waves come rushing in....

As the waves come rushing in..

This is the where the story always always ends
This is the never ever after
To a perfect day

This is where the story always always ends
This is the never ever after
To a perfect day

Never ever after
Never ever after
