50 Lions

Talk and talk, so much to say back it up, face the truth not a threat, just a fact see right through, the way you act sick and tired of letting this slip un-turn our backs, time to face it its not over yet, fuck you your nothing, nothing new time after time you never

you never SEE THINGS THROUGH
look again its all

look again its all

COMING BACK AT YOU!

cause i know a thing or two about you and so called crew its the things, that you say that you never, ever do
