

Out Like A Light

764-HERO

I can see why you'd think that
Cos you never know the half of it
Passing out favors
And you talk like you're leaving
I wish you'd take your own advice
And just get away

Now you're out like a light
Cos you're living the american version of twilight
Bought in, hook line and sinker
Acting like you're one of them outside

I am so scared of ending
And you won't let me
You, it's your turn to listen
And you will, yeah you will, yeah you will

I can see why you'd think that
Cos you never know the half of it
Go on and let it
Get you worked up and worried
You're ruining the magic hour outside

I am so scared of ending
And you won't let me
You, it's your turn to listen
And you will, yeah you will, yeah you will
