

I'm livin' in this world I'm a normal being
So what you're gonna name me gimme happy feelin'
You want me so bad you don't know what you have
But you don't think of me as livin' by your side

You call me Batman then I'm a spider on the wall
You say I'm super but I'm a trooper in the war
Mr. Incredible then you say I'm Iron Man
But I am just a father working hard as I

You don't need a hero you just need your brain
You don't need a hero you just need a best friend
You don't need a hero you just need your brain
You don't need another hero no

Indiana's fightin' 40 men to save the world
Superman is trying to be cool but he's a nerd
Batman is crying while the Joker kills the girl
And I'm just sitting here I am flying through the world

You call me Batman then I'm a spider on the wall
You say I'm super but I'm a trooper in the war
Mr. Incredible then you say I'm Iron Man
But I am just a father working hard as I can

You don't need a hero you just need your brain
You don't need a hero you just need a best friend
You don't need a hero you just need your brain
You don't need another hero no
You just need me

I'm livin' in this world
I'm livin' in this world
I'm livin' in this world
I'm livin' in this world
I'm livin' in this world

You call me Batman then I'm a spider on the wall
You say I'm super but I'm a trooper in the war
Mr. Incredible then you say I'm Iron Man
But I am just a father working hard as I can
You don't need a hero you just need your brain
You don't need a hero you just need a best friend
You don't need a hero you just need your brain
You don't need another hero no
You just need me
