

Always

7eventh Time Down

I took all I thought was mine
Threw away what I knew was right
Empty all alone
Too ashamed to crawl back home
Oh the tears they fell like rain
When I heard my Father say

I will always love you
You're my child
No matter what you do
Welcome home
For your mistakes
There is mercy
There is grace
Always
Always

It's my joy to please You Lord
Even though I keep falling short
Oh the tears still fall like rain
Every time I hear You say

I will always love you
You're my child
No matter what you do
Welcome home
For your mistakes
There is mercy
There is grace
Always
Always

I will run to the arms of Jesus
Always
I will fall at the feet of Jesus
Always

I will always love You
You're my child
No matter what you do
Welcome home
For your mistakes
There is mercy
There is grace
Always
Always
