

The 99

7eventh Time Down

I can feel the earth slipping from my feet
Got lost chasing dreams
That I can't seem to reach
But you never stopped chasing me
I've been hiding from my past
Wasting time ticking fast
Thought I was out of reach
But you never stopped chasing me

You would search the whole world over to find me

There's no place you wouldn't go
You're searching high and low
You'd leave the ninety-nine to lead me home
I can't outrun your love
There's no road that's long enough
You'd leave the ninety-nine to lead me home
There's no place you wouldn't go

I can hear the sound of struggle fade away
When I hear you call my name
And I can finally see
What you see when you look at me
You're convinced I'm worth it all
Nailed the proof up on the cross
So I can finally see

There's no place you wouldn't go
You're searching high and low
You'd leave the ninety-nine to lead me home
I can't outrun your love
There's no road that's long enough
You'd leave the ninety-nine to lead me home
There's no place you wouldn't go
There's no place you wouldn't go

You would search the whole world over to find me
To find me
You would search the whole world over to find me
To find me

There's no place you wouldn't go
You're searching high and low
You'd leave the ninety-nine to lead me home
I can't outrun your love
There's no road that's long enough
You'd leave the ninety-nine to lead me home
There's no place you wouldn't go
You would search the whole world over to find me
To find me
There's no place you wouldn't go
You would search the whole world over to find me
To find me
There's no place you wouldn't go