

Light up the world

A Broken Silence

We're dancing on the ashes, now watch it burn
Light up the world, light up the world

Why do we play the victim?
We're to blame for our predicament
Our eyes upon our children but we're dancing on their innocents. Don't need a Chrystal ball to see what's on the horizon
'Cause the dreams we keep inside will be our keys to surviving
From 'the point of no return' we watch the old earth burn
Scatter ashes from the earn, the new world is submerged
A rebirth, a return, a resurgence to old wisdom, we light up the world with our hearts beating in rhythm

We're dancing on the ashes, now watch it burn;
Light up the world. Light up the world
We're dancing on the ashes, now watch it burn
We've had enough so light it up, so light it up
Burn...
We've had enough so light it up, so light it up

I'm witnessing death and resurrection
I'm witnessing the very last breath of redemption
You put a price on our heads... It's for survival you said
Our suicidal generations about to rise from the dead...

It's straight lies we were fed; oblivious to reason
You had no chance of succeeding, 'cause we're a billion hearts beating
A billion hearts that only need peace and seek freedom
From the ashes, we're building a new garden of Eden

We're dancing on the ashes, now watch it burn;
Light up the world. Light up the world
We're dancing on the ashes, now watch it burn
We've had enough so light it up, so light it up
Burn...
We've had enough so light it up, so light it up

It's darker now, the world has found the cure
It's darker now, the world has drowned

We're dancing on the ashes, now watch it burn;
Light up the world. Light up the world
We're dancing on the ashes, now watch it burn
Burn...

We've had enough so light it up, so light it up
We've had enough so light it up, so light it up
We've had enough so light it up, so light it up
We've had enough so light it up, so light it up
