I Will Destroy The Wisdom Of The Wise

A Bullet For Pretty Boy

I can't look at what we've done
And make it all ok
All hope is found in you
We know it's found in you
Take us and let us see
All we need is to see

Let us carry on through the night

Its like they poisoned us overnight How much can they take We all need to take charge (We can wake them) Speak now and save this world When silence is deafening When silence is deafening The world is set aflame God is real And we stand strong Speak now and save this world So write this down As it comes As a reminder For when your lost this shall come to mind All was offered All was offered We are not of this world We are of God We have become so Lost in how we think it is supposed to be Let us become one Voice because we were meant to sing We look to you father The day has actually come Where they will tell us lies These words are not in the book Don't tell us what you think Don't preach to us in vane Tell us about the truth I have come to destroy the wisdom I have come to destroy the wise I have come to destroy the wisdom (of the wise)
