

Last Call For Lost Souls

A Faylene Sky

For all the seasons
Let's not forget
These faces are
Inside my head
This isn't what we wanted
This isn't me
This isn't me
Last call for lost souls
To follow me
Home alone
They never mentioned
They never mentioned
We fell and lost our minds
They remain in the shadows the shadows tonight
They never mentioned
We fell and lost our minds
They remain in the shadows the shadows tonight
The shadows the shadows tonight
The shadows the shadows tonight
A call to arms now
We won't die yet
Forget the faces and lay your head
It's all I would've asked for
This isn't me
This isn't me
Last call for lost souls
To follow me
Home alone
They never mentioned
We fell and lost our minds
They remain in the shadows the shadows tonight
They never mentioned
We fell and lost our minds
They remain in the shadows the shadows tonight
We never found them (4x)
We never found them this time
Stop don't finish my words
Well maybe this time they'll cry
At all costs realize
That your words are alone
Alone in this world
Don't point your finger at me
This is our tragedy
Last call for lost souls
Don't fight these feelings
Your memories walk alone
Last call for lost souls
To follow me
Home alone
We fell and lost our minds
They remain in the shadows the shadows tonight
They never mentioned
We fell and lost our minds
They remain in the shadows the shadows tonight
The shadows the shadows tonight
