

Anybody out There

A Life Divided

Is there anyone who knows what it's like?
And is there anyone who's searching to find my light?
Is there anyone who's feeling alone?
And is there anyone to carry me home?
Is there anybody breaking down the walls around my soul?

[Chorus]

Is there anybody out there?
Is there anybody there?
Is there anybody out there?
Does anybody care?

Is there anyone who's taking my fear?
And will anyone remember that I was even here?
Is there anyone who cares 'bout my world?
And is there anyone as good as his words
Oh, is there anyone who knows just how it feels to stay unheard

[Chorus]

Did you ever feel like it's all over?

Did you think that you even care?
Carrying the world's weight on your shoulders
Praying for somebody to be there

Feel my mind breaking!
Feel my mind breaking!
"Is there anybody out there?"
"Is there anybody there?"
"Is there anybody out there?"
"Does anybody care?"

[Chorus 2]

Is there anybody out there?
Is there anybody there?
Is there anybody out there?
Does anybody care?
Is there anybody out there?
Is there anybody there?
Is there anybody out there?
Is there anybody...
...oh, just anybody...
...anyone who cares?
