

Foreign Rain

A Life Divided

She's wondering through her speech
Like any given tough guy
She don't know, know why
She always needed her to fly
She's open, so pretty
To meet someone that's love on her

(Where are you now?)
Watch the ocean running dry
(Where are you now?)
And the sun is getting cold
(Where are you now?)
Foreign rain clouds from the sky
(Where are you now?)
Your secret is out

She's calling in silence
So no one hears her crying
She's siting on sideways
I've seen her dreams turn fair
She's wondering where am I
If someone ever shines a light on her

(Where are you now?)
Watch the ocean running dry
(Where are you now?)
And the sun is getting cold
(Where are you now?)
Foreign rain clouds from the sky
(Where are you now?)
Your secret is out

You make some trust
To keep her up alive
Too late tonight
Nobody shines up a light

(Your secret is out)

(Where are you now?)
Watch the ocean running dry
(Where are you now?)
And the sun is getting cold
(Where are you now?)
Foreign rain clouds from the sky
(Where are you now?)
Your secret is out
