

Happy End

A Life Divided

How could I feel you when you're cold as a rock
You got me down on my knees
I play your game because it's all that I've got
And hide myself into dreams

I guess it's time - I'll break the chains
I'll fly away and leave behind the happy end
Nevermind - Let's go astray
'Cause I had to learn to see
That Happy Endings don't come here for me

I wanna leave you but I can't find the way
The way out of your words
I still believe in everything that you say
Hang on your lips til it hurts

I did feel you
I adored you
I believed you
I followed you

Now this is my time to go
I hope I'll find a way home
And I wonder if there something ahead
Now this is my time to go
I hope I'll find a new home
