

Lay Me Down

A Life Divided

Bury me in silence, kill me with your smile
Sing away the sadness and cover me with lies
Bury me in silence 'cause you know I just can't fight
Another war that can't be won

So please lay me down and leave me here forever
Right down on this ground where it all began

I don't wanna lose it all
I don't wanna miss the times and stories
That we might have had
I don't wanna lose it all
I don't wanna be a memory left alone inside your head
So would you lay me down, lay me down again

Bury me in silence, break me with your eyes
Come a little closer, so you can read my mind
Bury me in silence, 'cause I just can't believe
In another hope that never comes
