

Perfect Day

A Life Divided

Are you scared of the lost if you step up the line?
Would you dare to attract to be free for a while?
Have you ever thought about that? That's our topic to be Obstruction for God, you are talking about me

No one really cares as long as you as you just pretend
In the dark, play your part and just do it again
You're a soldier, you're a coward, you're a mercenary
You're the bad of the bad, you defeat the machines

Once you're done, can't you take him from me
Life in the wind, can't you take him away for life
I wanna know can't you take him away by night
I will fly away

I gotta do it, got a second to lose I say
I got a feeling I got nothing to choose anyway
One day, one life
Another perfect day to die
I gotta break her credentials again I say
I need a friend to set the form the way in the end
One day, one life
Another perfect day to die

When you flying so bad, you leave the freedom behind you
Choking from gas, you're almost speaking life
Something wrong but just as great as they were meant to believe
With no escape and nowhere to go

Did you ever care about her, makes you scream and can't get up
Like a part you better dress to repeat
You're a liar and cheater, you're completely clean
Took your hands on the back, you defeat the machine

Once you're done, can't you take him from me
Life in the wind, can't you take him away for life
I wanna know can't you take him away by night
I will fly away

I gotta do it, got a second to lose I say
I got a feeling I got nothing to choose anyway
One day, one life
Another perfect day to die
I gotta break her credentials again I say
I need a friend to set the form the way in the end
One day, one life
Another perfect day to die

Nothing is changing anything
We are the ones to stay
Nothing is changing anything
We are the ones to stay

I will fly away

One day, one life
Another perfect day to die

One day, one life
Another perfect day to die

I gotta do it, got a second to lose I say
I got a feeling I got nothing to choose anyway
One day, one life
Another perfect day to die
I gotta break her credentials again I say
I need a friend to set the form the way in the end
Another perfect day to die
Another perfect day to die
