

The Last Dance

A Life Divided

Hey now what do you want from me
It's the same old situation and you got me down on my knees
I say hey now tell me what do you see in me
I got nothing to lose and even less I could give
Hey hey now we're living on ecstasy
Can't leave ourselves alone it feels like Johnny and Marylin
I say hey now we are our heroin
We know that it kills but we love how it thrills

Engines running high
We lose ourselves tonight
Like this is the last dance of our lives

Everything I ever did was all for you
Everything I ever did was all for you
It feels so right but it's a bitter mistake
To want somebody, to love somebody like you

Hey now come on take a ride with me
Forget about the rules and all this boring conformity
I say hey now I feel the fire inside of me
I can't get enough, I never felt that free
Hey Hey now what do you do to me
I'm caught between the devil and the deep blue sea
I say hey now you are my tragedy
I can't help myself, can't get you out of my dreams

Engines running high
We lose ourselves tonight
Like this is the last dance of our lives

Everything I ever did was all for you
Everything I ever did was all for you
It feels so right but it's a bitter mistake
To want somebody, to love somebody like you

Everything I ever did was all for you
Everything I ever did was all for you
It feels so right but it's a bitter mistake
To want somebody, to love somebody like you
