

The Persistence Of Memory

A Life Divided

Get along
With the time in your bag
Don't sit back, don't sit back
Get along
Too many people on the way
To forget where it's at
Get along
Too many seasons that you've
Searched for the perfect track
Get along
It's always too late to step back, to forget

It's a never dying
It's a nullifying world you live in
Dirt conceiving
It's a never dying
It's a virtualizing world that's cheating
You believe in

Get along
The days make you cry
Let 'em pass by
Get along
Don't you try to combine
The signs for tonight
Get along
You disguise blinding eyes
Let it shine it is bright
Get along
Ignorance is the key to survive, it's your life

I've been waiting for so long
I've been waiting for that day to come
All the crosses I have burned
All the secrets I have learned
