

Cold Dark Mourning

A Pale Horse Named Death

As we stand around your grave
Tears are falling as we pray
With red roses in our hands
We lay them down and say goodbye my friend

Anyone you ever lost
Goes up to the stars above
Everyone has gone away
They have passed away

From the womb we go to our tomb
Temporary place we all leave soon
I remember when we all laughed
All I have left are memories of past

Anyone you ever lost
Goes up to the stars above
Everyone has gone away
They have passed away

Cold dark mourning, freezes me
Empty table, empty seats
I am the last of my friends
As I wait to meet them, meet them again

Anyone you ever lost
Goes up to the stars above
Everyone has gone away
They have passed away

Cold dark mourning has taken me
Cold dark mourning is freezing me
