

Deep Blue Breath

A.R. Kane

Love emotion knows no caution
Takes me like a little summer flower breeze
(yes, yes, ...)

Take me to the ocean
And that little summer flower breeze
Take me to the shore
And I will wait for you down on my knees

Because the ocean is a sea
And it's coming for me
The ocean is a sea
And it's coming for me
Oh wash me over

And if I drown inside the ocean
I want you to know
That only love can win me over (forever)
There's nowhere else to go

Cuz love emotion knows no caution
I would fly across the ocean
On my wings of sheer devotion

The ocean is a sea
And it's coming for me
The ocean is a sea
And it's coming for me
Oh wash me over
Oh wash me over

Love emotion knows no caution
Takes wing like a gentle flower (breeze)

The ocean is a sea
And it's coming for me
The ocean is a sea
And it's coming for me
Oh wash me over
(Wash me over, wash me over, ...)

Love emotion knows no caution
Takes wing like a little flower
Little summer flower breeze
Little summer flower breeze yes
Little summer flower breeze

Gentle little summer flower breeze
