

Lover

A.R. Kane

You're so rare
a unique boy
so sad yet full of joy
so limitless
caress
caressing me

you could take me home with you or I could take you home with me let me, let me
love you too
it's like a miracle
a loving cure-for-all I feel the dust around my hollow heart just slip away

for you I've sworn a rose without a thorn
pure tenderness
possess
possessing me

I only ever cried for you when will you try to sigh for me
let me, let me
my tears flow long and cool a fool beside a pool
I feel beside a pool
I feel the hurt inside my hollow heart just wash away
