Lover

You're so rare a unique boy so sad yet full of joy so limitless caress caressing me you could take me home with you or I could take you home with me let me, let me love you too it's like a miracle a loving cure-for-all I feel the dust around my hollow heart just slip away you're so rare for you I've sworn a rose without a thorn pure tenderness possess possessing me I only ever cried for you when will you try to sigh for me let me, let me love you too my tears flow long and cool a fool beside a pool I feel beside a pool I feel the hurt inside my hollow heart just wash away
