

Lucky For Me

Aaron Pritchett

My jaw hit the floor the day you walked in all eyes were pointed in your direction with nothing to lose i asked you to dance i didn't think that i'd stand a chance but

Lucky for me you proved me wrong (proved me wrong)
it was a roll of the dice
it was a shot so long
what started out as no hope in hell has turned out heavenly so lucky for me

Just goes to show you cant judge a book by the cover if i had i'd still be searching for another i believed i was livin in a dream and at any moment someone would wake me up but,

Lucky for me you proved me wrong
(proved me wrong)
it was a roll of the dice
has turned out heavenly
so lucky for me
(2x)

Yeah
Lucky for me (5x)
