

Undeniable

Aaron Pritchett

Listen while you read!
Laying on the bed, satin pillow case
And moonlight takes the room, shimmers on your face
Don't have to say a word, your eyes say it all
The candle softly burns, shadows on the wall
Every time we touch

All the pieces fall in place, I'm forever amazed
When love collides with grace
It's undeniable

When the morning sun sneaks in through the blinds
I sit and watch you sleep, an angel in the light
My heart is overwhelmed, it's unbelievable
This something that we found, so incredible
Every time you're near

All the pieces fall in place, I'm forever amazed
When love collides with grace
It's undeniable, ohh, ohh, ohh, undeniable
Ohh, ohh, ohh, ohh, oh

We don't have to wonder
About this spell we're under

All the pieces fall in place, I'm forever amazed
When love collides with grace
It's undeniable

There's no shades of gray as sure as blue skies fade
And night turns back to day
It's undeniable

Ohh, ohh, undeniable
Ohh, undeniable, ohh, undeniable
Ohh, ohh, undeniable
