

Sad tears are on your face
On a wet pillow of lace
Empty space is my place
And I am so ashamed
Afraid to speak of hate
On the ledge outside your window
Sorry, I made you wait
Abandoned and feeling betrayed
You say, oh it is too late
I'm a cat now, that is trying to meow
That wants to let you know
My life is ready to grow

Honey, I'm your grizzly
Crucified by the tears
With my heart bleeding
Honey, I'm your grizzly
Don't you know that I m still falling in love
Honey, I'm your grizzly
Crucified by the step when you're leaving
Honey I'm your grizzly
Don't you know that I m still
Trapped in the abyss of love

I was outside last night
The reason was clear and bright
That's why you started to fight against me
One infidelity stays in the memory
Bottle of feelings are empty
Say Hi and start again
What's the way to stop the pain
And a chance to cleanse your brain
Don't say that nothing was good
Our love was made from the wood
And how do you know, wood is burning

Honey, I'm your grizzly...
