

Love Is Strong

ABC

We've gotten my limitations, but God knows I'm still sane
I've wasted invitations, in this rain
High upon these rampards, singing these songs of love

With tears in our eyes

I know this love is strong, so tell me I'm wrong, tell me I'm w rong
I know this love is strong, and don't even speak

We would meet and talk for hours
Was probably an illusion, but bono lost his powers

We drink and drink some more, like fish swimming round a bowl
Laughing, laughing, laughing, with tears in our eyes

I know this love is strong, so tell me I'm wrong, tell me I'm w rong
I know this love is strong, and don't even speak

I'm under no illusions now, I'm losing diamonds, I'm losing clo thes
I've loved and I've needed love

I know this love is strong, so tell me I'm wrong, tell me I'm w rong
I know this love is strong, and don't even speak

Love is a union, nothing more, love is a union of souls
Love is suffering, love is gold
Love is a union, of your soul
