

S.O.S.

ABC

So here we are, driftin' on an open sea
So here we are, for all we know
And then again, we know
For all we know, I know, I know

With all the power that I possess
Let's match their money with our own finesse
Why should we ever have to settle for less?
Why does this message always have to be

S.O.S.

One cool million for one cool caress

So here we are, still driftin' on an open sea
So here we are, for all we know
And then again, we know
For all we know, I know, I know

With all the power that I possess
Let's match their money with our own finesse
Why should we ever have to settle for less?
Why does this message always have to be
