

The well of dreams has dried Thousands of tears you've cried As you watched your desires fade while you reached for them and you realized - it was too late Instead of using the strongest two words - "I am"
you said "I want", you said "I need"
and now you feel like an empty wishing well as a result of you emotional greed.

Wishing and wanting inspire emotions associated with lacking and not having all in other words, dreaming with a deficit mindset, listen and see - this here is absolutely free it will be real when you choose it to be it will not be when you don't agree listen and see!

You may have a desire but are you choosing that desire to be fullfilled something only comes into your world, when you choose it to be.
Instead of using the strongest two words "I am"
you said "I want", you said "I need",
And now you feel like an empty wishing well as a result of your emotional greed.
