

I Enter You

Absurd Minds

Come on my dear, you don't need to talk:
I'm just waiting for a sign from you.
I want to command your body to do:
What no other command you.
I wanna say something:
that's on the tip of my tongue
No, the time's too short:
One lustrous dawn

No fear, no doubt, not a bit of shame
You feel the fire in your crouch tonight
I feel the same,
I feel the same
You feel the fire in your crouch tonight
And you will know all you need to know then
So let me inflame you, and let me enslave you
I will break your pride tonight, tonight
And you will know all you need to know
I enter you tonight

The rush trembles at the touch as you beg a kiss
Sweet sense in the air, do you awake the dream
Come on my dear, leave the day behind
I enter you, I free your mind.
Now I free your mind. I free your mind

No fear, no doubt, not a bit of shame
You feel the fire in your crouch tonight
I feel the same,
I feel the same
You feel the fire in your crouch tonight
And you will know all you need to know then
So let me inflame you, and let me enslave you
I will break your pride tonight, tonight
And you will know all you need to know
I enter you tonight

I enter you tonight

I enter you tonight

I enter you tonight
