

Heaven Knows

Absynthe Minded

Just like splitting the money
And seeing through
We had it coming full blown
If you want something done quick good
Honey you know where i roam
Heaven knows
We're on a roll
You want it to happen
Let me in
We can win
I want it to happen

There's never much talk but touches, smiles together, curses for parting
My gaze is fixed on you and you know that you got it
Give me just a second baby i am ready willing and able
Let me do it to you baby something's hiding under the table

The chemistry between two lovers soft and wet
I know where we're going next
If you want something done quick good
You can put me to the test
Heaven knows
We're on a roll
You want it to happen
Let me in
We can win
I want it to happen

There's never much talk but touches, smiles together, curses for
parting
My gaze is fixed on you and you know that you got it
Give me just a second baby i am ready willing and able
Let me do it to you baby something's hiding under the table

You are
You are
You are my baby girl
I don't want no other one you are my baby girl
