

You know who she is
You know what she does
Only I know what that girl's doing to you
You know who she is
You know what she does
Only I know what that girl's doing to you

There' one for every band
Almost one for every man
If you're not careful
She'll eat you up
So please be careful

Yoko Yoko
Nagging all the time
Wasting all hes time
Yoko Yoko
Be carefull with that boy
Better be carefull with that boy

She'll win you with composure
And perfect nonchalance
She'll lure you in and snag you
Make you think that you'r the Fonz
She'll get you in her clutches
Make you her confidant
She'll nag you to death and she'll drag you
Man you've gotta get rid of that debutante

She'll nag you to death and by inches
Will suck all the life that you somehow have left
Yeah it will only be nag nag nag nag
