

I Just Called to Say Jag Älskar Dig

Acid House Kings

I know loneliness, it's a hotel room
The uninspiring bed, the late night TV dramas
Is it really me in a conference room?
The white board emptiness, the self-absorbed arousal
I'm missing pieces, don't you?

And I just called to say jag älskar dig
And I just called to say jag älskar dig
'Cause in Swedish it sounds honest, sincere, heartfelt
and almost heartbroken
I just called to say jag älskar dig

Will you plan our escape from their dining room?
The all to perfect food, the shallow minds and topics
Please spend less time in your dressing room
The coordinated whites, the special brands we all wear
I'm missing pieces, don't you?

And I just called to say jag älskar dig
And I just called to say jag älskar dig
'Cause in Swedish it sounds honest, sincere, heartfelt
and almost heartbroken
I just called to say jag älskar dig
