

Song Of The Colour Red

Acid House Kings

Here is a kind and happy song
Let's all sing along
There is a man in a red t-shirt
It manifests his faith
He is a man of strong beliefs
And I admire him for that
Bet they're intimately connected
With the lifestyle of his friends

Don't be afraid
To do something that you would like to do
Don't be afraid
To sing

Here is kind and happy song
Which you should listen to and learn
Blue is for heaven
Green is for grass
Yellow is for sunshine
And red is just a miserable lie

Don't be afraid
To do something that you would like to do
Don't be afraid
To sing

Sometimes it feels
Like this song is all there is
But then I remember
The life of the colour red
