

Yes! You Love Me

Acid House Kings

Sometimes you make me wonder
If I was not to see you
For a week or two
Would you still be true?

But you said that I'm alright, girl
And you said you'd never leave me
How can I be sure?
Should I lock the door?

Is it forever?
I want it now, forever
I want it now, forever
Forever

I will try to be myself again
I will try to be myself again

'Cause you love me
And that's all that I can think of right now
Yes! you love me
And that's all that I can think of right now

Sometimes you make me wonder
If I was not to see you
For a week or two
Would you still be true?

I'd love to take you out, girl
But that's something that I don't dare
I will not compete
