Room at the Top

Adam and the Ants

Once is never enough
Never is and never was
Here and now is all that counts
Here and now in large amounts

Be beautiful but shut up
The going can be real tough

You can keep your fancy bars Clubby friends and fast cars And when the going gets hard You can eat your credit cards

I really tried to fight it But what the hell I like it

There is always room at the top Don't let them tell you that there is not Made in England born and bred An eighteenth century brain In a twenty first century head

If some of this fits some of you Or like the things that you might do It's the pleasure and the pain That makes us do it all again

They say be beautiful and shut up The going can be real tough

There is always room at the top Don't let them tell you that there is not Made in England born and bred An eighteenth century brain In a twenty first century head

Room at the top - so eighteenth century Room at the top - so eighteenth century Room at the top
There's always room

Room at the top — so eighteenth century (move over) Room at the top — so eighteenth century (move over) Room at the top There's always room

There is always room at the top Don't let them tell you that there is not Made in England born and bred An eighteenth century brain

There is always room at the top Don't let them tell you that there is not Made in England born and bred An eighteenth century brain

There is always room at the top

Don't let them tell you that there is not Made in England born and bred An eighteenth century brain

There is always room at the top Don't let them tell you that there is not Made in England born and bred An eighteenth century brain In a twenty first century