

Boats

Adam Cohen

Boats come, boats go
Everyone is going for a ride
Bags up and bags down
Everyone is looking at the time

No-one knows quite where they're going
No-one knows where the wind is blowing
Everyone is in for a big surprise
On a so called ride

No-one knows quite where they're going
No-one knows where the wind is blowing
Everyone is in for a big surprise

Boats come, boats go
Everyone is going for a ride
