

A Beast In Me

Adam Gontier

Here we go again, it's madness.
I swear I don't mean things I scream at you.
This hate inside of me, it's sadness.
I can't control the stupid things I do.

Over and over and over again it turns on me.
It's a beast inside me.
A beast in me that I don't even know!

Here I go again, relentless.
The mirror shows the red in my eyes.
This human being I was once before,
is now a scary story filled with lies.

Over and over and over again it turns on me.
It's a beast inside me.
A beast in me that I don't even know!

The cages don't work.
The chains don't hold me down.
I'm digging my way through the past and clawing at the ground. (3x)

The cages don't work.
The chains don't hold me down.
I'm digging my way through the past,
clawing out, clawing out!

Over and over and over again it turns on me.
It's a beast inside me.
A beast in me that I don't even know!

Over and over and over again it screams at me.
It's a beast inside me.
A beast in me that I cannot control!

A beast in me! There's a beast in me!
A beast in me!
