

You're Not the Holy One

Adelitas Way

Time will be your maker
Your sick behavior
Your masquerade as the creator
You think you're the savior
Save all your statements
Like you're the king, like you're the greatest

Why can't you just open your eyes?
And see the world the way I see it too?

What made you think you're in control?
I'll watch you sink
I'll let you hit the wall
I don't believe what you've become
Down on your knees you're not the holy one

Your taste is tasteless
Your grace ain't gracious
Preaching to yourself 'cause you're so faithless
Time is now your maker, your sick behaviour
Change and do us all a favor

Why can't you just open your eyes?
And see the world the way I see it too?

What made you think you're in control?
I'll watch you sink
I'll let you hit the wall
I don't believe what you've become
Down on your knees you're not the holy one

Why can't you just open your eyes?
Why can't you just open your eyes?

What made you think you're in control?
I'll watch you sink
I'll let you hit the wall
I don't believe what you've become
Down on your knees you're not the holy one
Ooh, no, ooh
Ooh, no, ooh
You're not the holy one
