

Master & Margarita

Ador Dorath

Faust:

"I gaze upon the stars above and wonder why am I still alive. Why cannot I just lie down and forget all I cried for? Relentless, I find no sleep, I can not live and I can not die. Why everything is hidden and appears to have no meaning? Do I live a dream? I remember, I want to wake up again."

Mefisto:

"Hear the Son of the Night, forget that the morning will come. Abandon every hope, you're not yourself anymore. There is no end to your desires, only shadow and Death awaits. There is no meaning to your existence, you can not win, give up the fight!"

Margarita:

"Never, never I will let you down and leave again. Never, never I will let your eyes cry again."

"As now you and I have beaten the Death. Together we are eternal!"

Faust:

"I remember the voice, as if in another life. I was someone else, as in theatre play. The words of my part are coming to my mind. All the mysteries of the universe are suddenly united."

Mefisto:

"Hear the Son of the Night, all is illusion, there is nothing to hope. Only the darkness till the end of your days, the sorrow is endless. Fear is your only company, the abyss of eternity. Hear the Son of the Night, the morning will never come."

Margarita:

"Never, never I will let you down and leave again. Never, never I will let your eyes cry again."

"As now you and I have beaten the Death. Together we are eternal!"
