

The Philosophical Alchemy

Ador Dorath

Accept the darkness of your soul. The change is possible. The ones above are the ones below... Go into shadow... It is the only way... To see that you are made of fire. The change is possible. Nothing is created in vain. Without darkness you couldn't see the light. It is in the darkest night you will understand. What you were before.

Light of your soul. Serpent meets eagle. Darkness is meeting the sun. All is becoming one.

Regresus ad uterum... Nigredo... Coincidentia oppositorum.

Nothing happens by chance. Without dying you can't know you are alive. It is in the darkest hour you will learn. What you will become.

Serpent meets eagle. Darkness is meeting the sun. Sulphur is your soul. All is becoming one.

Accept the darkness of your soul. The change is possible. The ones above are the ones below... Go into shadow... It is the only way... To see that you are made of fire.
