

Coconuts

Adrian Belew

Hello honey, how is every little thing?
Sure I'll be glad to meet you at the beach at ten
I wanna be your brown-eyed handsome man
Plant my feet in the sand
Maybe you could be the Sunkist queen
In your cool Raybans
Ooohweeee, you and me babe
Here comes another summer of love
And we're a fine pair of coconuts

Oil me up, buttercup
Park your towel over here
With your things n' stuff
I'm gonna work on my major tan
I'm gonna get it perfect yet
You go ahead, hon, and jump in the lake
Let me know if it's wet
Ooohweeee, you and me babe
Here comes another summer of love
And we're a fine pair

Under the sun
Where there's only one plan
Build a condo in the sand
And maybe we'll be fried again, oh man

Oil me up now coconut
I just love to feel your hands
Oil me up now coconut
I wanna be your man
Ooohweeee, you and me babe
Here comes another summer of love
And we're fine coconuts
