

Sleep. I want to stay in bed all throughout the day, no one bot her me.

I don't wanna open my eyes.

I'll lie here in my room. I have no need to see.

No one wake me, I just want to stay right bed.

No one move me, I just want to lie right here, right in my warm bed,

because I don't want to see tomorrow.

Here I am so happy, so just leave me be.

I just want to stay.

I do not bother you, so don't you touch me.

Get the fuck away!
