(by Bob Marley) Until the philosophy which hold one race superior And another Inferior Is finally And permanently Discredited And abandoned -Everywhere is war -Me say war. That until there no longer First class and second class citizens of any nation Until the colour of a man's skin Is of no more significance than the colour of his eyes -Me say war. That until the basic human rights Are equally guaranteed to all, Without regard to race -Dis a war. That until that day The dream of lasting peace, World citizenship Rule of international morality Will remain in but a fleeting illusion to be pursued, But never attained -Now everywhere is war - war. And until the ignoble and unhappy regimes that hold our brothers in Angola, In Mozambique, South Africa Sub-human bondage Have been toppled, Utterly destroyed -Well, everywhere is war -Me say war. War in the east, War in the west, War up north, War down south -War - war -Rumours of war. And until that day, The African continent Will not know peace, We Africans will fight - we find it necessary -And we know we shall win As we are confident In the victory
