

I'm Right Here

Afromental

I see you girl although you looking down all the time
I'm thinking why, babe try to figure out what's on your mind
Maybe you're sad, maybe you're fine, but thinking deeply
Maybe there's something that makes you walk so quickly
But then you raise your head and I can see your face looks sad
I don't know why but I strongly recommend walking with me
I wanna be the one that change your mind, make you smile
Just look at me, go with a flow, it surely suits your style

I wanna go through you mind
If you can't handle it just count on mine
Let's leave all the shit behind

Let's do somethin', go enjoy the day
Drink a glass of wine, go to park or play some games
I'm right here so don't say the mission's failed
Whatever you wanna do I would do it with you, do it with you babe

It's nearly six o'clock, she's still not home
And it feels ain't right
I keep looking at the door
Imaging my love there with her cutefull eyes
There she is, there she comes
But she seems so low
Babygirl welcome home
She came and said her day went wrong
Hey ma, where the hell's your smile
Come have a seat, let's rest a while
I'll make you food, do you good
Just to clear your mind
We can chill with some TV, I can put on some CD
I will fool around for, just to make you smile more

I wanna go through you mind
If you can't handle it just count on mine
Let's leave all the shit behind

Let's do somethin', go enjoy the day
Drink a glass of wine, go to park or play some games
I'm right here so don't say the mission's failed
Whatever you wanna do I would do it with you, do it with you babe

Ooh... today I feel like everything is crashing down
Ooh... my day went wrong
There's no sense for faking smile
'Cause I'm falling to ground and I'm shaking
My heart's crying, I feel like I'm breaking
So please help me boy
'Cause I feel I cannot do it alone
But there's you babe
And I know you're always there for me
With your arms, with your smile
That saves my heart
There is always you!

Let's do somethin', go enjoy the day
Drink a glass of wine, go to park or play some games

I'm right here so don't say the mission's failed
Whatever you wanna do I would do it with you, do it with you babe
