

Running Away

Afromental

Remedy, whole fucking world try to battle me
Pulling to the ground like the gravity
Loosing my humanity, feeling so rotten - depravity
I'm running real low on my battery - insanity

Sometimes it feels like an overload
I can't hold on more, can't find my road

Where's my love?!
Where's my peace?!
Where's my freedom?!

Shit! I don't know what it's all about
Feel tired who the hell gave me role in a bout
My guard is weak, shit! I've been down on a count god damn, damn bwoy I've been loosing that fight

So dear light in me
Just bring me fire
I've been found guilty
Of my desires
I'm spreading my wings wide
Sun lead my way now
I'm gonna out leaving the rain

I'm running away!

Where's my love?!
Where's my peace?!
Where's my freedom?!

I need some remedy, whole fucking world try to battle me
Pulling to the ground like the gravity
Loosing my humanity, feeling so rotten - depravity
I'm running real low on my battery - insanity

Got to stand on my feet right now
For too long I have been nailed down
Clear my mind don't mind all the shit around

So dear light in me
Just bring me fire
I've been found guilty
Of my desires
I'm spreading my wings wide
Sun lead my way now
I'm gonna out leaving the rain

I'm running away!
