

Bittersweet

After 7

It's crazy how you flaunt your passion
When you let many of them worth take over you
You stare into my soul like that
Makes me wonder when you angered by the sight of me

It's pain and pleasure
To love someone so
So much you, you hate them
Push me over the edge then
To go catch you, you love this
It's bittersweet
(What you want from me, want, want)
I build you up, then knock you down
It's bittersweet
(What you want from me, want, want)
You stay quiet and I get loud
It's bittersweet

It's so easy to listen
When your tongue is an innocent prisoner of war, oh yeah
And it might be wrong but we never end that
Damage is done, always pain and pleasure

To love someone so
So much you hate them
Push me over the edge then
To go catch you, you love this
It's bittersweet
(What you want from me, want, want)
I build you up, then knock you down
It's bittersweet
(What you want from me, want, want)
You stay quiet and I get loud
It's bittersweet

Yeah, I know you know me
That's why you the only one can push my buttons
Sometimes it's like you speak another language
Got me like adios buenas noches, baby
Oh, it's pain and pleasure

When you love someone
Like I do when I'm lovin' you, babe
The edge then
To go catch you, you love this
It's bittersweet
(What you want from me, want, want)
I build you up, then knock you down
It's bittersweet
(What you want from me, want, want)
You stay quiet and I get loud
It's bittersweet
(What you want from me, want, want)
I build you up, then knock you down
It's bittersweet
(What you want from me, want, want)
You stay quiet and I get loud

It's always bittersweet
