

Extra Mile

After 7

I got my eyes for you, you got me wondering
When you don't come through, I know you got choices, girl
But what you gon' do, I wanna make it easier
Which one do you choose? Which one do you choose?

I know that I could be out (out) playing in the wild (wild)
Messing with some women I ain't seen in a while (yeah yeah)
I got options (yeah yeah) but I'm waiting for the right one
Someone I can wake up and make love to before the morning comes
'Bout to [?] morning up, shining like the morning sun

I don't mind being patient when it comes to you
I think you're worth all the waiting, let me tell the truth
Girl, for you I'd go a few extra miles (a few extra miles)
You know I wanna make love tonight, baby
For you, I can wait a while

Till then, bring your sexy ass over here
Dancing, till the music goes off
I will, say all the things that you'd love to hear
Teasing your body till we dose off

Baby, I can see you in the bed topless
So hot, touching your body in the cockpit
I'm only focused on you, baby, I'm locked in Thinking 'bout all the freaky things I could do to ya
You got me bending all of my rules for ya
Baby, I don't mind taking my time

I know that I could be out playing in the wild (yeah)
Messing with some women I ain't seen in a while (oh yeah)
I got options (oh) but I'm waiting for the right one (ooh)
Someone I can wake up and make love to before the morning comes
'Bout to [?] morning up, shining like the morning sun

I don't mind being patient when it comes to you
I think you're worth all the waiting, let me tell the truth
Girl, for you I'd go a few extra miles (a few extra miles)
You know I wanna make love tonight, baby
For you, I can wait a while

Till then, bring your sexy ass over here
Dancing, till the music goes off
I will, say all the things that you'd love to hear
Teasing, your body till we dose off

For you, I can wait a while
For you, I can wait a while
For you, I can wait a while
For you, I can wait a while

I don't mind being patient when it comes to you
I think you're worth all the waiting, let me tell the truth
Girl, for you I'd go a few extra miles (a few extra miles)
You know I wanna make love tonight, baby
For you, I can wait a while

Till then, bring your sexy ass over here
Dancing, till the music goes off
I will, say all the things that you'd love to hear
Teasing, your body till we dose off

For you I would wait a while
